Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On July 30, 2018, Jared Bauer was appointed to the Board of Directors of ProLung, Inc. (the “Company”). In connection with the appointment of Mr. Bauer, the Board of Directors was expanded to five directors, and Mr. Bauer was appointed to the class of directors whose term expires at the 2020 annual meeting of stockholders.

Mr. Bauer, age 37, has been the Chief Executive Officer of ApolloDx, LLC, an in vitro mobile point-of-care diagnostic company, since April 2014. In addition, since June 2017, Mr. Bauer has been the Chief Executive Officer of CibusDx Inc., a company delivering technology that improves food safety testing. Mr. Bauer co-founded and led the Idaho Business Council, a non-partisan collaboration between the State’s business community and all of its research universities to promote Idaho-based research and economic development. In 2012, Jared founded Exuro Medical, a developer and supplier of first aid burn care products, where he worked as Chief Executive Officer until December 2016. Jared led the Exuro team to expand BumFree distribution to 58 countries, managing regulatory processes, re-working quality systems, and making BumFree the second largest burn treatment product line in the world. Jared led Exuro Medical through a successful exit transaction in 2016. Jared currently serves as a trustee at The Oliver Fund, a non-profit he co-founded, and has recently served as an adjunct professor of entrepreneurship at LDS Business College. Mr. Bauer earned a master of business administration degree from Boise State and a bachelor of science degree in economics from the University of Utah.
